

UNESCO i-WSSM

Capacity Building Program for Next Generation Leaders in Water Security

UNESCO i-WSSM is looking for international students in the water sectors who wish to participate in our special capacity building program for enhancing awareness of water security through diverse lectures and field trips.

If you are interested in water management based on ICT to respond to climate change or to achieve carbon neutrality, this amazing opportunity is yours!

Capacity Building Program for Next Generation Leaders in Water Security

Main topics	Date	Venue	No. of Participants	Fees
Water management with ICT, Carbon neutrality, Climate change	20-24 February 2023 (5 days)	Daejeon and Daegu	10	FREE*

* Finance including tuition, accommodation, transportation, and meals during the official program are fully funded by UNESCO i-WSSM.

Targeted participants

- ① Any international students, officials, professionals from countries included in the <OECD DAC's List of ODA Recipients>;
 - ② Must be enrolled in universities in the Republic of Korea;
 - ③ Majored in water-related sector or have related working experience;
- * Students who are not majored in water sector still can apply for the program, however, the priority is given to the students with relevant experience.
- ④ Have not participated in any programs hosted by UNESCO i-WSSM.

Application Procedure

- ① Download the form from our website(<https://unesco-iwssm.org/#>)
- ② Fill out the form and submit it to our email(edu@unesco-iwssm.org) by no later than 12pm, 30 January 2023.
- ③ Announcement will be sent to selected participants via e-mail by 6pm, 2 February 2023.

Contact Point (for any inquiries)

🌐 Websites : (UNESCO i-WSSM) <https://unesco-iwssm.org/#> ✉ E-mail : edu@unesco-iwssm.org