SKKU STEM Scholarship for Graduate Program

What is STEM Scholarship

The "SKKU STEM Scholarship for International student" offers scholarship to eligible international students to pursue Master's, Doctorate or Combined Master's, and Doctorate studies in the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, and Medical department (STEM). The scholarship includes 100% tuition waiver, initial settlement fund and monthly stipend for scholars with outstanding academic potential. STEM Scholarship can be continued with the recommendation of the advising professor every semester.

How to Apply for Graduate Admission and STEM Scholarship

Step 1. Find SKKU Professors
SKKU professor's recommendation is required for STEM scholarship. Search SKKU's professor in the research area of your interest. [Find SKKU Professors] and [Department's website] on our admission webpage provide the SKKU professors' information.

Step 2. Contact Faculty & Department
By accessing the QR code, register your information on our website and upload your transcript, CV, and etc. Type your Statement of Purpose in the comment box of the website for better consultation.

Step 3. Apply for Admission
Please refer to the admission website for the application period and submit an online application.

※ Eligibility (Language Ability) for Graduate Admission

STEM fields are taught fully in English. Applicants for STEM fields must submit certificate of Language Proficiency in English among below options.

1) Official English test score
     ① TOEFL iBT 71 or above / or ② IELTS 5.5 or above
2) Applicants who submit "Certificate of English Proficiency" signed by the dean of the department at SKKU

SKKU